

LUTHERAN CENTER FOR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

THE HAMMER OF FREEDOM

Martin Luther took his hammer and posted on the church door his invitation to a debate about the truths of Holy Scripture. His hammer blows started the movement known as the Reformation. His hammer blows reverberated throughout the land as he expanded, explained, and expounded on Grace Alone! Faith Alone! Scripture Alone! and Christ Alone!

Luther's hammer not only instructed about our relationship with God, but also our relationship with the government. His writings about the two-kingdoms have echoed throughout the centuries and were heard by the Founding Fathers as they crafted the Republic of the United States.

The cornerstone documents of the new Republic laid out the principles of freedom to worship without government interference that were copied the world over.

Today the hammer of freedom wielded by Luther continues to influence and guide our lives as we speak confidently of the freedom we have in Christ, our Savior.

The Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty advocates for Religious Liberty for all.
